

2007 – The Year of Expansion through Understanding♥

Lazaris – as channelled by Jach Pursel – reminds us that “pain and fear are not the only means of growth, that you can more elegantly grow through joy and love ... that you create your own reality – that there is no fine print or exception ... that there is a God/ Goddess/ All That Is who loves you, who knows your name ... and that you love: You love ‘good enough’ ”

When you understand the ease and grace with which Life is intended to flow, you become empowered to expand your experiences and your outcomes in a way that demonstrates what Lazaris has been sharing to these many years. When you understand deeply rather than merely intellectually, you are at your most creative, your most loving because you have moved into a space that allows.

Over the last few months, the Archangels have encouraged many of you to open yourself to expanding your life’s experiences – to expanding your Joy; to expanding your positive point of view; to expanding all that de-Lights you in order that you may grow in exhilaration and enthusiasm for your Life. When you combine understanding and expansion, you answer the call that on a very basic level, you remember is part of your Life’s purpose: that of going beyond boundaries. All Life seeks to expand itself, to go beyond the Seen into the Realm of the Unseen.

And that is where Perception originates...

*To perceive is to understand in the realms where words cannot go.
To perceive is to allow understanding to come to you rather than chasing after it.*

Reach out with the love ... Reach out with the understanding you have for life and for the wonders that life can hold for you and for your world. Be loving ... Be understanding ... Be at peace with each of these and with each other.¹

The thousand year period of the Two vibration expands our opportunities to clearly and thoroughly study Relationship in all its glorious and frustrating forms. With the vibration of Two we open ourselves to the gracious, supportiveness of the Diplomat. Partnerships and relationships of all types — friends, lovers, business partners, co-workers and colleagues, companions, parents and children — all are the means through which we are able to bring ourselves to a form where we harmoniously develop co-operation and consideration of all involved. The Age of Aquarius requires of us the development of Humanity as a global community where the needs of the one are equally as important as the needs of the many.

For this year and three more close years, we will enjoy the inspiration of the double Zero – Creativity abounding in that quiet, patient yet nurturing space wherein creativity and dynamic growth occur. This is the place of innocent accomplishment — where we can go in our imaginations, our visualizations and explore the visions we would like to manifest. As we work with this energy, we have the time to change and re-arrange, to “practise” what it would be like living our dream, to get comfortable with the possible experience and to gain clarity on what part of our plan/ dream/ goal is most important to us. And we can do this with a depth of experience and richness that when we actually take on the manifestation of this dream; it is so familiar to us that it is like slipping on a comfortable robe and feeling very much at home.

Then we move to the awakening of our potential for wisdom and knowing as we align our intentions and our visions with the essence of the Seven. This is the vibration of the Seeker wherein we realize that it is time for us to go beyond our previous and present experiences. By expanding into new venues for personal and global growth, we become the deeply philosophical, introspective, sensitive and spiritual channels of manifestation we were always intended to be.

When one looks at the basic energy of 2-0-0-7, we are in the presence of a visionary energy. The Nine is the number of harvest through completing that which has reached the fullness of its season. As we make discerning choices; closing chapters in which we have finished our lessons and opening ourselves to plans/ dreams/ goals for our new growth, we are accessing the liveliness of a life about to bloom anew.

And so it is that the Nine essence will bring you exactly the result that you have planted, nurtured or ignored, lifted up or stomped on to the very measure that you have given out. At this time, if you lose sight of the deep, soulful meaning of life, you will feel out of balance. By staying connected to your heart and intuition, by sharing a thought-full word, a cup of water, a comforting shoulder or an uplifting hand, you will be nourished lavishly in return. And whether or not you remember doing so, know that the Universe is aware of all and rewards all according to what you have given.

Celebrate your humanness by uniting and moving with body, mind, heart, spirit and you will create the kind of harmony that can move you to personal transformation. As you seek understanding, give yourself the opportunity to listen to your body; as you seek physical experiences, give yourself the opportunity to lead from your heart; as you seek expansion, let your good Spirit guide you. In all that you do, choose Happiness and discover the Light=heartedness of that “Logic”!

“Peace be with you.”
