Please see notes on reverse for the most effective manner in which to develop and work with the dynamics of your image.

I give thanks to the Highest Pure Source [the God of Your Understanding, X] for the perfect fulfillment of this image as written or better. It is so.

Images may be used to focus and charge energies to support a goal or dream you might have in many areas of Life. Start by choosing a pastel colour of paper that relates to the subject of focus.

For example, you would use green paper when the issue is abundance or personal growth; use blue paper for healing; orange for health; pink for [love] relationships; yellow for career. Of course, if you intend your career [yellow] to be financially abundant [green] and to have positive relationships [pink], you place circles in the secondary colours in the centre of the page as shown on the reverse.

Write your name and your goal in the centre of the page as you are the centre of your personal universe. Claim your goal by saying "My Abundance" My Career" et cetera. In a circle around these words, write "Surrounded by Love, Light and Laughter"

At the top of the page, write your invitation to the God of Your Understanding -- however, you identify the Highest Pure Source -- and at the bottom of the page write your gratitude statement. It is important that you express your gratitude because this sets expectation in place; it brings a future state into the energy of the present and, most of all, saying thanks is a powerful manifestation exercise.

In the balance of the page, include statements which support the way you would like to be in the situation, the way you would like any partners/clients/employers/caregivers, et cetera, to be and the way you would like the relationship, career to occur. Please take care to follow this information:

1. All words, phrases and statements are to be in the present tense.
2. They are to be positive in nature. If you have a negative statement, rephrase it to be positive.
3. The words "no", "not", and "non" do not belong here as the brain often misses them. For example, you would prefer a partner who doesn't smoke. If you wrote "non-smoker" in your image and the brain did not respond to the "non", you could draw a smoker into your experience. It is more effective to write "living in a smoke-free environment"
4. The statements on the sample overleaf are suggestions, but, of course, please feel free to create your own. If you find you have written something more than once, accept that that energy is important enough to be repeated.
5. Review the image daily [once or twice] for 47 days to set the energy solidly in motion. Then review it regularly two or three times a week until the circumstance is demonstrated in your Life.
6. It is critical that you allow the Universe to bring the job, partner, or other goal to you as it sees fit and you will always achieve for your Highest Benefit. If, in a relationship image, you have a particular individual in mind whom you desire as your partner, this may not occur. Images are extremely powerful tools and highly sensitive, but they cannot be used to manipulate and if the individual you wish as a partner is not willing on a vibratory level to engage in this relationship, it will not happen. Trust in the judgment of the Most High and have faith that the individual who comes to complete the image is the right match. Do Not Show Your Image to Anyone - you don't need disbelief dumped on it.
